New Orleans Feb 28th

Dear Pa I received ~~your~~ letter by Mr Klein. Mrs note much more feel very much worried by ~~something~~ telling me of not receiving any letters.
I have written by the Gray Eagle.
I see by Grand Ma's letter that she has not improved much I will send her box by Mr Goodrich. Miss Lee thinks that will be the safest way. I hope for the six months to come to an end so I can come home I have heard this evening that a box is on the Gray Eagle or Mr Pitcher office Mr F says he will attend to it ^{to} tomorrow.
Uncle and aunt are well he says he saw Mr DeFrance who told him you ~~were~~ well. Ma writes to take my letters to Mr Pitcher but he ~~is~~ is so unconcerning to every body I don't like to bother him. I hope you will receive this letter as I have written so many letters and you all say you don't receive them all are well. Miss Lee got two letters from the Dr he was about leaving I went to see coz Sally owner. coz James wife married a preacher.

about a year after coz's death

I keep very well only some sick I am glad to hear you all are keeping well make jack take good care of Dancer

I am sorry you keep so confined your friend Mr Gough has removed to St Charles to be a more central part of the city Mollie & Kate are mine send love

I go to dancing school, if you cant send me let me know by the next letter Mollie & Kate go thru love to yourself and Ma^{only} your affectionate

son A Fred Bernard
